Almost Paradise was a page turner, a long read, but too interesting to care. Nicholas and Jane were two characters that were easy to fall in love with. A beautiful love story of two different people from two different backgrounds, b

Almost Paradise Book Review - Common Sense Media

Unsettling things happen in Almost Paradise, and Ruby Clyde deals with them. Some parents might be wary of religious undertones such as "Praise the Lord" written, without irony, on a person's cake, or references to biblical tales throughout, amid holdups and jail time.
