Blink: The Power of Thinking Without Thinking; Malcolm ...

Blink is a book about how we think without thinking, about choices that seem to be made in an instant-in the blink of an eye-that actually aren't as simple as they seem. Why are some people brilliant decision makers, while others are consistently inept? Why do some people follow their instincts and win, while others end up stumbling into error? How do our brains really work-in the office, in Blink: The Power of Thinking Without Thinking - Wikipedia

Blink: The Power of Thinking Without Thinking \(2005\) is Malcolm Gladwell's second book. It presents in popular-science format research from psychology and behavioral economics on the adaptive unconscious : mental processes that work rapidly and automatically from relatively little information.

Blink was the first Gladwell book I read and I wish I read it last! All of his books are amazing (he's my favorite author) but I think Blink is the best. Granted, it's not new research, but for those of us that don't keep up with it, it's a solid book that makes you think. I think the thing about Gladwell is that he's just SOOOOO damn good at being a storyteller.
