Foreign Affairs by Alison Lurie - Goodreads Share book ...
As the heroine of "Foreign Affairs" complains, there is no grand romance in our culture for the middle-aged, only for the young and beautiful. This book is a delightful counter to that truism, the story of what happens to an unmarried and acerbic professor of English literature when grand passion strikes her at fifty-five. The book follows two threads - Fred, a young academic, and Vinnie, the

We Ask the Author Q: Why do you believe readers would enjoy a romantic book affair with Michel de Cernay? S.E. Lund: Michel is incredibly beautiful and intense and powerful but that intensity and power are softened by a sense of humor and a playful side that he lets show now and then when his guard is down.
