Boundaries: When to Say Yes, How to Say No

In short, boundaries are not walls. The Bible does not say that we are to be walled off from others; in fact, it says that we are to be one with them (see John 17:11). We are to be in community with them. But in every community, all members have their own space and property. The important thing is that property lines be permeable enough to allow passing and strong enough to keep
