'Concise' is not the best description of this book. It is not the lessons which are truncated (as in some purported tutorial books like 'Master Chess in 21 Days') but rather the book itself. It is a small square book. At 288 pages, it should be considered a 144 page pocketbook. However, the space is generally well-occupied, so it is somewhat like a 288 page Pandolfini book (which may have lots
