Individual behavior in organization. Human behavior is complex and every individual is different from another, the challenge of an effective organization is in successfully matching the task, the manager and the subordinate.

Social Information Links Individual Behavior to Population ...

Despite this, population and community ecologists have typically neglected to formally consider that individuals, particularly those within a species or trophic guild, influence one another's behavior 18, 20. Here, we fill this gap by highlighting how the use of social information can substantially affect population and community dynamics.
