One Second After (After, #1) by William R. Forstchen
I decided that I'm going to send One Second After back to the library after having read only about 1/3 of it. It's not a supremely awful book, it just feels like I've read it before. It doesn't seem to have any new ideas in it and it definitely doesn't present the post-nuclear attack scenario in any way that it hasn't been done before. In the case of this book, the nuclear attack is one that
