A nice, high level description of the sinking of the Bismarck. I'd known the general story, but this filled in a lot of details that made the story even more interesting. I had no idea how much was at stake and how close the Germans came to changing the whole complexion of the war if the Bismarck would have escaped.

The Sinking of the Bismarck: The Deadly Hunt Nicely written and a quick read. Shirer is a very good writer and keeps things moving and interesting, giving enough facts and information to understand who is who and what is going on (and where, which many books do not make clear). That said, it is a 'light' read.
