The Art of Thinking in Other People's Heads | National ...

The controversy it generated prefigured present-day concerns about the deterioration of attention and the media's role in shaping or, as Walter Benjamin suggested, generating public opinion. 1. Around the middle of the nineteenth century in France, printing technology and political conditions paved the way for the affordable daily newspaper, the world's first mass medium.

Mikkel Krause Frantzen No utopia, not now? (Review of ...)

The book Utopia from Thomas More to Walter Benjamin is a twofold exegesis; a meditation on, first, Thomas More, and, then, Walter Benjamin. It is as simple as that, although as Abensour admits at the very outset, the two thinkers in question have little in common except for their contribution to utopian thinking.

Weaponise Aunt Hester's Scream | Mute

It is of course the same enemy from whom, if victorious, not even the dead will be safe', as Walter Benjamin declared.¹⁸ So the question which follows is: how do you weaponise an audience who, including myself, seem to be too well trained? The left, when operating within two regimes of either a state form of thought, or a weak horizontalist orthodoxy seems too well suited to the V; - monoskop.org
